Still Life Set-Up and Composition

Workshop Instructor: Karen Budan, APAA

Date: Saturday, Mar. 10, 2012

Time: 9:00am to 2:00pm

Location: AAG Building 18411 N. 7th Ave., Phoenix, AZ 85023

Workshop Description: Participants will discuss the definition of still life painting, types of still life paintings, the nuts and bolts of setting up a still life, use of the various tools of composition (like viewfinders, value scales, thumbnails, Photoshop, cameras and grids). The workshop will include a hands-on activity of setting up still life compositions while discussing the elements of design and common compositional designs for still life paintings. The workshop will conclude with a group discussion/critique of still life paintings by a variety of painters using a computer and LCD projector. This workshop is not a painting workshop but is focused instead on the elements of composition necessary for a successful still life painting.
